LUXAFLEX® COUNTRY WOODS® Venetians

LUXAFLEX® Country Woods® Venetians have a uniform grain appearance with a medium texture. This uniform grain shows it is natural timber while maintaining a consistent colour and pattern across the entire blind.

The 90mm curved valance, reduces light gaps at the top of the blind between the headrail and top slat providing better coverage of hardware. This valance is also used in the wood essence range ensuring a consistent appearance when both products are used in the home. This provides flexibility when you require a matching product in high humidity areas.

The Luxaflex Country Woods Venetians range is available in manual cord or motorised operating systems.

Quality

The high quality hardwood used in Luxaflex Country Woods Venetians is made from 'Poplar', a light weight wood which provides great dependability.

This hardwood is renowned for its ability to absorb paint well which helps to provide resistance to dents, scratches, peeling and twisting.

Stringent testing is completed to ensure a high standard of quality over the life of the product in the harsh Australian climate.

We care about the environment and all timber is responsibly logged from managed forests in America. Made to measure in Australia using heavy-duty components for a smooth operation and enduring performance.

Maintenance of Country Woods Venetians is simple and easy via minimal dusting with a light feather duster.
